Senior Bowl Team

Senior Prophecy

We the members of the Junior Class foresee the members of the class of 1972 doing the following activities twenty years from now:

Janet Ackeberg has opened a school for the learning of social graces, like falling gracefully.

Dave Blackert has just won the Shirley Temple award for "Dimples U.S.A."

Joyce Bowen, after 2- years as President of Hiram Walker, has finally tasted the business.

Twenty years from now, you will still see Morrie Bruns touring Main Street, now called Joy Street.

Bill Chapin has just taken over lighting Liberachi's Candelobra.

Steve Chriest is now working at Arco giving away free pumpkins.

Gary Clark has been hanging around the basketball hoop these days. It seems his ring got welded to the rim.

Poor Bruce Coers has spent the last five years in the pen for breaking into the Funyums Corporation.

Kathy Cole has just invented many different ways to cook hamburgers at Bea's Lunch.

Harold Crandall is the president of the Windshield Inc. Company of America.

Steve Dawson has just donated locks of his hair for new designs in Brillo Pads.

Mark Doty, after finally kissing his sweetheart, his heart went pitter-patter, and suddenly he turned into a bird.

Connie Hatten has just received her B.S. from Western in how to make a bird's heart go pitter-patter.

Joe Heeren, better known as Robinhood, has just become Rat Exterminator of Northern Illinois.

Connie Keener is a Captain in the Salvation Army and President of the local chapter of Lonely Hearts Club.

Gordon Kelm is a success in the movies. He has just been declared the most virile actor in Tampico.

If you have ever seen "The Klock", alias Terry Klockenga, in gear you'll understand why he has become the "Farmer of the Year."

Lyle Linden continues to move only one way. He is slower and slower.

We are all proud of Bob Lindsay for winning the "Man of the Year" award, of which of course, he was the judge.

Dawn Marshall has finally attained the rank of master Sargent up there in the wild blue yonder.

Marc Melton is the founder of a new game that is sweeping the nation. It is something like the game "Mother May I?", but with a new title.

Peggy Mitchell has gone partners with pumpkin and spends most of her time passing melons out at the Arco Station.

Beth Newman is the new Sexatariate for Brillo Pads Inc.

Lowell Newman has just written a new book called "How to remember to Forget".

Glynis Oldham has discovered a new way to laugh without snorting.

Martha Palmer has finally gained enough awards in the "Girl Scouts" so she can be close to her loved one.

Brenda Parrott has finally gained control of herself and doesn't pick on the kids on vocational busses any more.

Poor Dave Pletsch's neck is now 3 feet long since he got his bronzed helmet stuck in a man hole while working for the Village of Tampico.

In the Allied Laboratory, the "Rock", alias Dennis Rockwell has invented the smokeless cigarette for locker rooms.

Gary Sandrock, because of his old age, has had to cut down to five women a week.

Debby Schwieman, Miss Flame 1971-1972, has continued to add to her list of titles.

Debbie Triggs is an instructor giving lessons on the art of walking.

Den Wetzell has taken his golden boot and shipped it all the way up to Mr. Brokaw.

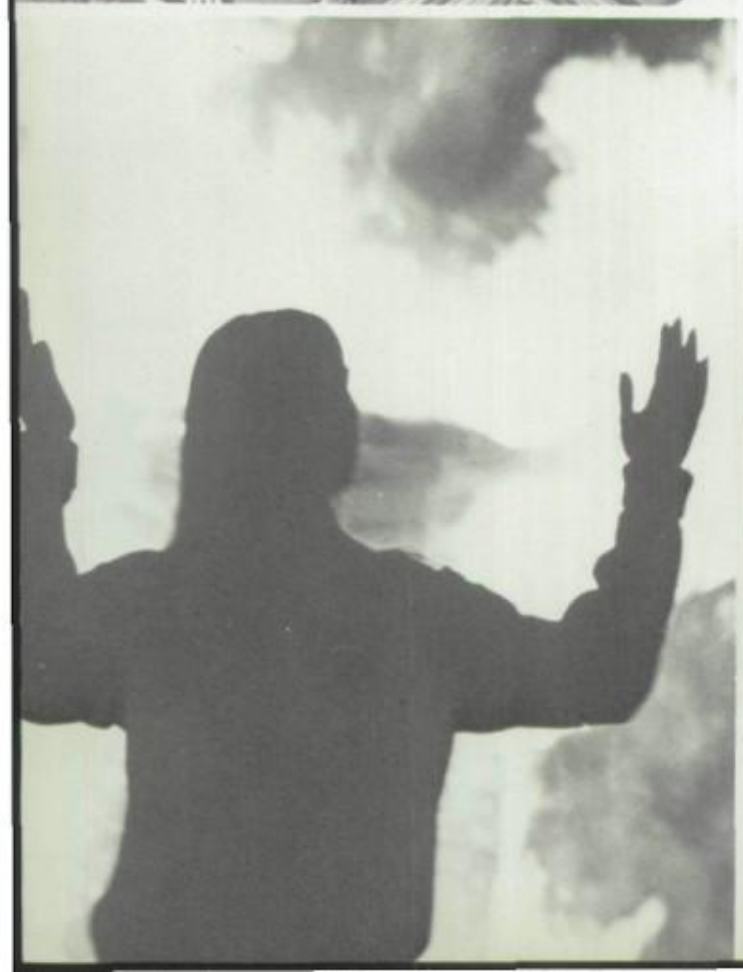
The 1971 Homecoming slithered to a snakey start with the snake dance Thursday night. Following the snake dance was the bonfire, where the nominees for King and Queen were announced and speeches by the coaches and captains were made.

Friday turned out to be a perfect day and the parade was held at 1:30. At halftime of the game, the results of the float judging were announced. First place went to the Seniors with the theme "Leave dePEW Defenseless". Second, third, and fourth places were awarded respectively: Sophomore--"Kill 'em Dead",



Juniors--"We'll Make Creamed Corn Out Of The Little Giants", Freshmen--"David Slew Goliath--See The Trojans Slay The Little Giants". The nominees for King and Queen were also announced during halftime. The Trojans defeated DePue by a score of 28-6.

The theme of the dance was "Royalty of Yesterday and Today". and everyone enjoyed dancing to the music of the National Pastime. Peg Mitchell and Steve Chriest were named Queen and King during the dance for the 1971 Homecoming.
